Words from Mr. Fleming

Dear 1994 Graduate,

Treasure your four years at Wilmington High School as it was in the arms of that institution that you moved from childhood to the beginnings of what will be your adult experience.

You dealt with friends and adults who cared for you, who cared less, and others who had trouble deciding what they felt.

You probably judged other's weaknesses and then wished you had avoided doing so.

You achieved, if you chose to, in athletics, aesthetics, club work and academics; and if you did, you embraced the rigors of fulfilling standards which are the "stuff" of morality and the essence of happiness.

I hope that somewhere in your four year journey you also learned not to take yourself too seriously and to laugh, because like the song says we all are only so much "dust in the wind."

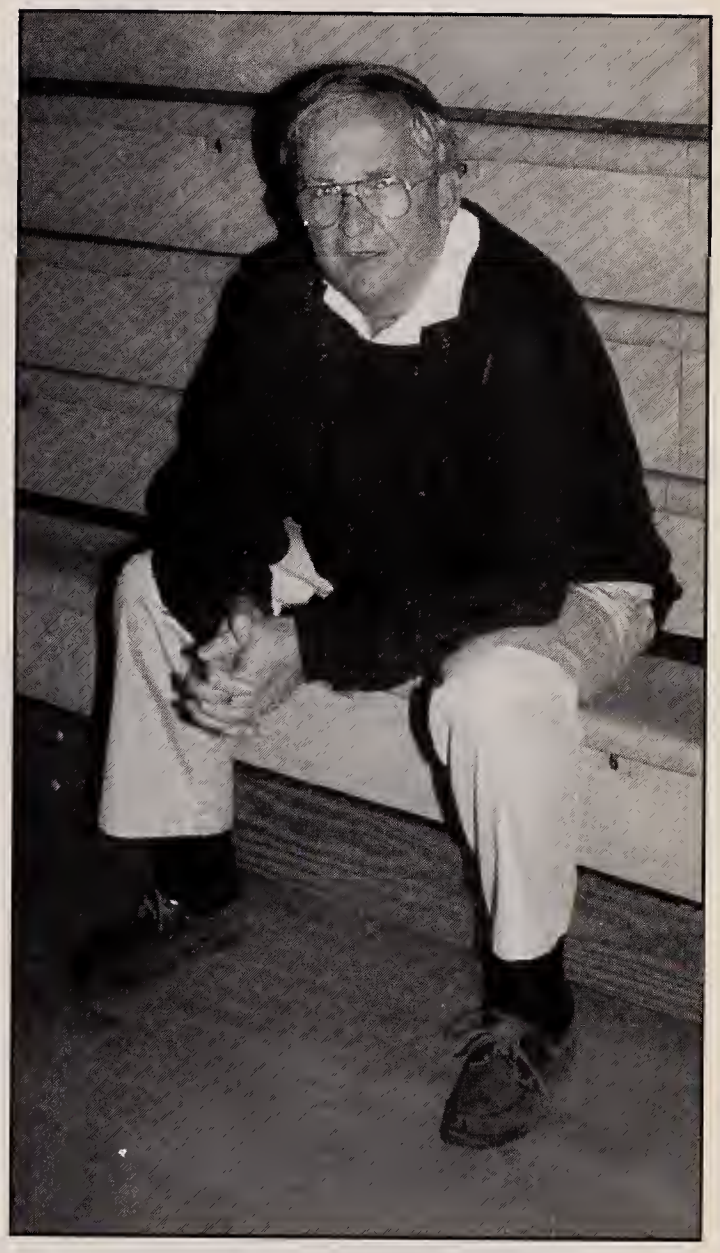
I hope you have learned how to learn and that your existence and egos are not infinite.

Love yourself so that you can love others and make a contribution.

Know that your principal thoroughly enjoyed his three years of voluntary service as your class advisor and stands ready to help you in every possible way he can in the transition to what lies ahead.

And finally, never forget that you are a product of public education which will forever need your support.

You are of and from the people.



Principal, Paul T. Fleming

CLASS OF 1994 PROPHECY

The 20th reunion had arrived, and the members of the Class of 1994 staggered into the gym foyer, removed their shoes and proceeded to seek out their old cliques. Due to the amount of liquid consumed before the function, many people rushed to get into the bathroom. However, due to school policy everyone who used the bathroom had to sign in first. After a brief welcome by ex-principal Paul T. Fleming, the class began to reminisce about their old high school days and to find out how their old friends were doing.

Tim Allard has moved out west and owns an Aspen ski resort.

Rob Allan didn't wake up in time to get to the reunion.

Eric Anderson's chest exploded.

Jim Angiolillo finally graduated from Wilmington High.

Laura Angus owns her own makeup line.

Rebecca Arnold is an artist with some pieces hanging in the Louvre.

Anne-Marie Auger has won the Kentucky Derby three consecutive times.

Sean Ballou plays football for the Dallas Cowboys.

Pamela Barron is now rich and famous, and wants to buy the Hope Diamond.

Greg Barry is a forward for the Boston Bruins and has the most penalty points in the NHL.

Dan Bento is still in Mr. Nee's marketing class trying to figure out the answers to his questions.

Brion Berghaus owns a ranch in Texas and is a Garth Brooks impersonator.

Rick Bouchie and Dave Fleming are the new lead singers for "House of Pain."

Ken Bourinot is the conductor for the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Lori Bova finally found an Irishman.

Kim Brackett came to the reunion, but was so quiet no one knew that she was there.

Brendan Brennan is still denying having any part in the slashing of Dan Kivlehan's tires.

Sandra Breslin owns a lingerie shop.

Jason Buccheri hasn't shown up for class yet.

Debbie Budd has enlisted in the army.

Byron Burke couldn't find the reunion because he got lost.

Susan Enico is internationally known as the woman who put "ZOINKS" in the dictionary.

Cliff Esher is a Secret Service agent and a dedicated Charles Barkley fan.

Alyssa Falzone is running a non-smoking campaign around the country.

Adrienne Fay has a softball pitching award named in her honor.

John Paul Fay writes gruesome horror novels for a living.

Colleen Fogg was late because she drives too slowly.

Brian Gargan couldn't make the reunion because his car was stolen.

Erin Gilhooly joined a nunnery and took a vow of silence.

Stacey Gillis lives in the Caribbean, writes love novels, drinks margaritas and listens to Jimmy Buffet.

Heather Gioioso sings back-up for her boyfriend's band.

Jimmy Gleason has finally "hit the high note."

Mike Gray is covered in tattoos.

Ryan Groves is still making popcorn at Cameo Video.

Dan Haas runs his own tattoo parlor.

Steve Hall is a nuclear physicist.

Kristin Harrison is the quietest person on the planet.

Dave Haugh has become a part-time U.S. History teacher at Wilmington High School, is a member of the Delta Force, and owns a Hummer Jeep.

Susan Hill has married Mark and now has a beautiful family.

Carolyn Hurley came to the reunion just to get the latest gossip.

Amy Jackson is circling the globe still chasing after the perfect guy.

Shannon Jepson is happily married to a now retired football star.

Greg Johnson has gone to Stanford U. after a lot of hard work.

Charlie Kacamburas has fully taken over Mr. Dicey's job teaching woods and metals at Wilmington High School.

Katie Kane has dyed her hair every color of the spectrum.

Jen Kane came to the reunion alone because she has not yet found a man she can completely control.

Fay Karapatsas is the modern Greek Goddess of Love.

Virginia Kardosz still thinks she is most talkative.

Rich Kelley is now a member of a local motorcycle club and owns a Ninja.

Jen Kilburn is dating John Malcovich and David Caruso.

Jason Loguidice manages a Burger King.

Steve Luce is still trying to sign out.

Dan Lutz still has a cast on his arm.

Jackie Mace, Janice Matulewicz, and Darlene Pilcher all own a hair dressing salon in Hollywood, CA.

John MacKinnon was voted People's magazine's sexiest man of the year.

Herb Maggio is unemployed but still hosted the post-reunion party at his house.

Dave Maglio is an Olympic pole vaulter.

Bryan Maleszyk owns a corporate law firm, an exclusive New York dance club, and lots and lots of money.

Paul Mangino is a physical therapist for the New England Patriots.

Herb Mason was last seen running through the woods of Wells, Maine.

Monica May is in the Guiness Book of World Records for wearing the most jewelry.

Bryan "Moose" McFeeters is coach of the Boston Celtics with a winning record of 80 wins and 2 losses.

Jeff McManus is the new lead rapper in "Cypress Hill."

Brian Surran still works at Pizza Mia talking about people he doesn't know.

Deborah Tamilio won the Nobel Prize in Physics.

Lynnette Thomas has finally permanently hitched a ride with el chico en el coche.

Brian Tildsley is currently sumo wrestling in Japan.

Raquel and Rebecca Todd were never known to have attended any of the reunions . . . nobody ever saw them.

Meetal Vaidya weighs 400 pounds . . . I mean 487 pounds.

Jason Vena is an author of a best selling novel on feminism.

Amy Venditti now owns a chain of Friendly's Restaurants with her two sisters.

Vasanth Venkatachalam shortened his name to "Vay."

Marco Vitale had his license taken away again so he couldn't make it.

Laura Vivona runs a stress relief clinic every Saturday.

Steve Walsh is a dentist specializing in capping teeth.

Paul Ware is now the happy Dean of UMass Amherst.

Jon Waterhouse showed up at the reunion in the Astro-van.

Mike Watters just wants to be alone.

Scott Wheeler is frequently cast in horror movie roles as a space alien.

Jessica White showed up at the reunion alone because Brian was missing in action.

Jon White has gone bald.

Joe Zukas, alias Zonc, alias ZMONT, alias SOFM, is a state trooper.

Mr. Frank Kelley, in his glorious retirement years, is still "huntin' wabbits."

The end of the evening unhappily arrives, and as the former students file out of the building, the thought remains lingering in their minds . . . What the heck does a pervert have to do with pulling a fire alarm?

Hello. It's me, your roving yearbook reporter Miss I. M. Nosey. I've been wandering the halls of WHS to find out seniors' opinions on the most pressing of subjects.

I. M. Nosey: "So, tell me, what do you like best about WHS?"
Members of Class of '94:
"The girls."
"The 1:45 bell."
"Lunch."
"Leaving it."

Nosey: "Well, what are some of the things you don't like about WHS?"
'94: "No hats rule."
"Bathroom sign-in."
"Having to carry passes in the halls."
"Locked bathrooms."

Nosey: "Now for the big question. How many times do you think the loudspeaker interrupts class?"
'94: "8"
"20"
"100"
"Too many to count."

Nosey: "You've been at this school for four years now. What's the worst excuse you've heard for being late?"
'94: "I tied my shoelaces together."
"I got lost crossing the common."
"I went into labor." (an especially bad excuse for guys)
"I was making banana fritters."

Nosey: "If you were on a desert island, what would be the one thing you couldn't live without?"
'94: "A pretty woman."
"Camping equipment."
"Cheesecake."
"A man!!"

Nosey: "Now that you're leaving the High School, what's your biggest worry?"
'94: "Car insurance."
"College."
"Graduation."
"AIDS."

Nosey: "What expectation did you have for Senior Year that has not come true?"
'94: "I'd get some respect."
"School would be fun."
"The principal would know I existed."
"None — I expected it would stink."

Nosey: "If you could live anywhere else, where would you live?"
'94: "New York."
"Anywhere but here."
"Italy."
"Venus."

Nosey: "Looking back on your years at WHS, what was your most embarrassing moment?"
'94: "Falling up the stairs."
"Falling down the stairs."
"Dressing up as Swamp Thing."
"Admitting I go here."

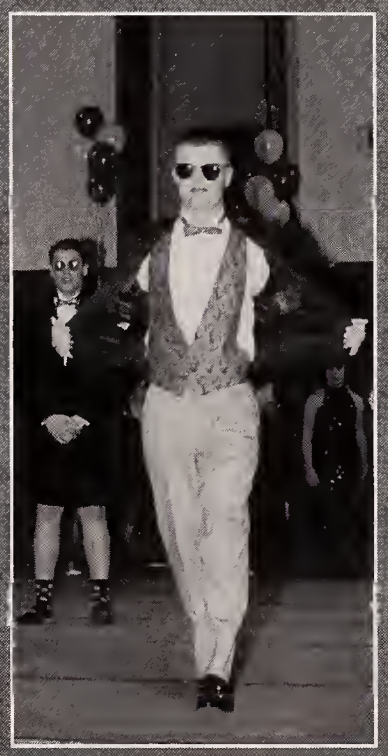
Nosey: "If you could be anyone else for a day, who would you be?"
'94: "Mickey Mouse."
"Albert Einstein."
"Mr. Fleming."
"God."

Nosey: "And lastly, what are you going to do the day after you graduate?"
'94: "I think I will sit and reflect on my years at WHS."
"Go to the beach and party."
"Sleep."
"Run nude through the halls . . . without a pass."

Well, there you have it. The class of '94 in a nutshell. Join me next time when I interview Mr. Fleming, asking him the probing questions you want answered.

FASHION

SHOW '94



CLASS WILL

I, Eric Anderson, leave Matt "Ralphy" Southmayd all the hair off my legs and an Epilady in case things get out of control.

I, Brion Berghaus, leave wishing Mr. Kelley, Mr. Downs, and the Wildcat baseball team good luck in the future.

I, Ken Bourinot, leave extremely confused.

I, Lori Bova, leave Julie Gillis a lesson on how to answer the phone.

I, Deb Budd, leave my little sister my ability to say no, hoping she'll use it more than I did. Fire it up!

I, Bryon Burke, leave Dan Kivlehan with no friends.

I, Angela Caira, leave my brother Michael the knowledge to be able to determine who his "real" friends are.

I, Mark Calendrello, leave WHS warning everyone that I will be back someday soon to run this school . . . AGAIN!

I, Pam Colella, leave my untold baby class stories to the "93" storytellers, period 7 and my Ryan pictures to Mrs. St. Onge.

I, Christopher Crowell, leave happily knowing that my phone bill in guidance is all paid off.

I, Laura DeMarco, leave all my extra fat cells to Parool Vaidya.

I, Sara Diorio, leave the adult room to Dick hoping it will satisfy his curiosity. Fire it up!

I, Lisa DiPerri, leave Jenna Tait all the cheeseburgers and oranges she can eat in one night.

I, Susan Errico, leave knowing Jenna Tait and I will always be B.O.C.'s.

I, Cliff Esher, leave Eric Froton a "Bob Jones" sign and my Ephus curve so he can now have over twenty different pitches.

I, Colleen Fogg, leave a Whisper 2000 to Eric Frost so he won't have to keep straining his ears to listen to other people's conversations.

I, Erin Gilhooly, leave WHS knowing the truth about the rumors. Fire it up!

I, Stacey Gillis, leave Jacqui Holloway the talks about the "days before Mary."

We, Dave Haugh and Pamela Barron, leave Dan King a box full of "Coed-Naked" clothes (including the tennis one), and a lifetime supply of Stove Top Stuffing.

I, Greg Johnson, leave headbangers scissors to cut their hair.

I, Virginia Kardosz, leave Michael MacKinnon a pillow for all his sleepy times in class.

I, Jennifer Kilburn, leave my "C" to Joan DeMarco.

I, Jeanne LaRocque, leave all my Newsweek magazines to whoever wants them.

I, Cheri Lawrence, leave my "before track meet" ritual to Kerri Cassella because she already does it.

We, Danny Lutz and David Maglio, finally leave ourselves to Kelly Landers.

I, Bryan Maleszyk, leave Wilmington High knowing that I'm still the best.

I, Paul Mangino, leave the past behind as I fear the future.

I, Monica May, leave all my prom dresses to Ann DuLong to be passed down to only those daring enough to wear them.

I, Jeff McManus, leave Richie Barden a bike so he can ride the bench next year in Methuen.

I, Amy Moniz, leave WHS knowing that a backstabbing liar could have been your very best friend.

I, Mike Moore, leave Mr. Nee's artwork to Mr. Scanlon as a hall pass.

I, Jeff Morin, leave Jason Dango my goalie equipment because it is still new after four years.

We, Karen Mulik and Val Cagnina, leave Sandy Texeira lots of luck with her so-called friends.

We, Jill Murphy and Christine Dearing, leave Amanda Zaya Red Sox tickets for October third, not second, batteries for $1.49, and the biggest cream horn at Hampton Beach.

I, Kate Nepveu, leave my hair to the faculty in hopes that they will establish a chapter of the Hair Club for Men.

I, Carol Nichie, leave senioritis to the class of '95.

I, Michael Pastore, have nothing to leave to anybody.

I, Heidi Pavlidis, leave Nick, knowing the two people we hate most are leaving with me.

I,Keith Pearlstein, leave all the wrestling matches that I ever lost in my high school career to Tommy Cassella to build his losing record.

I, Rina Percuoco, leave Wilmington High School remembering how much fun I had freshman year with all of my friends.

I, Lori Pinkham, leave all my morning stories to Kym Tarr and my undying love to Greg, Pat, and Joe.

I, Liz Rebelo, leave the money I've saved to start a scholarship fund for less endowed women.

I, Brendan Rogers, leave Greg Young some D.Y.M. and a big helmet.

We, Angela Rongone and Lisa Damore, leave Jane Carroll her own garden of pussy willows.

I, Stephen Shaw, leave the unscratched angle of my car to Mark Surprenant.

We, Steve Shaw and Shannon Jepson, leave WHS pondering one last question. What really happened at all of those hockey cheering parties?

I, Erica Solas, leave the WHS volleyball team many more losses.

I, Chris Splaine, leave senior year in one piece.

I, Deborah Tamilio, leave to Matt and Danny my love of science for use in future science fairs, and to Mr. Megyesy all the physics problems that neither of us could do.

I, Mike Tentindo, leave with a hat on my head.

I, Lynette Thomas, leave Mr. Wood knowing how lonely he'll be when I'm gone.

I, Brian Tildsley, leave Billy Harrison the wrestling room. Keep working hard and don't let females get in the way.

I, Meetal Vaidya, leave my "twin" Parool brownies, shopping trips, and a separate identity.

I, Jason Vena, leave chauvinism and immaturity to anyone who enjoys them as much as I do.

I, Laura Vivona, leave Keri Whitney my parking spot at the turnaround along with the car.

I, Janee Woods, leave Fernando Cucci a Hershey kiss and Garrett Whitemore a one way ticket to Lynchburg to visit JD.

We, the members of the Business Professionals of America, leave the correct field trip forms and some bad jokes to Mr. Nee.

We, J.D.K.J.R., leave WHS wondering why we were blessed with four years with such masculine, respectful, mature gentlemen. You know who you are!

Homecoming Weekend started out with the traditional Homecoming Dance on Friday night. Many students attended the dance, and a good time was had by all. One of the highlights of the dance was the crowning of Angela Caira as Queen and Mark Calandrello as King.

The homecoming festivities continued the next day with the football game. It was sunny and warm in the afternoon as Wilmington played Billerica on Alumni Field. Unfortunately, the Wildcats suffered a tough loss, 28 to 0.

My Name is Mike Leverone also known as air chisel man in auto class. Activities: only Wrestling even though I only made it through one season. I only wish to remember a few things like Mr.Fardy's class. I always said "she's fat write her up" I would also like to remember that I always got a lot of hugs. I think everytime I was seen I was hugging someone. And would like to remember working in the kitchen and working with Mousey. "Good Luck Mouse" I'd also like to remember Mr. Gillis and the second period freshman gym class that he let me teach and conduct. I would not like to remember a few members of the senior class who were either stuck up or didn't talk to anyone. My favorite past time was once again hugging all of the girls. Have lots of fun over the summer and party hardy. Senior class of 94 rules!!!!!

Remember all the good times, there were many. Remember the hangouts (the tracks, the wildwood, and Gregg's room). Remember the moments (freshman English, the sophomore-semi, the 4th of July — Herb's, the Junior prom and the beach, the mall, ISS, the first 15 minutes of the Senior Homecoming dance — thanks Joel, and the parties). Remember the friends (Gregg — thanks, Rick, Steve, Joe, Joel, and Tia). Most of all, remember the memories. Forget spending the first 6 weeks of high school on crutches. Forget the X-mas car crash — thanks Steve. Forget working at UPS and Shaw's. Forget the fact that it is time to grow up. Where have the years gone!

The Peer Mediation program at Wilmington High School was started in the fall of 1993 as a way to resolve conflicts and prevent violence. Student mediators receive eighteen hours o intense training in such areas as listening, questioning, forming agreements, and conflic resolution.

All mediation sessions are voluntary and confidential. The students in conflict attend onl if they want to and the details of the mediation are kept strictly confidential. Peer mediator do not take sides or force the students in conflict to do anything. The goal of mediations is t help students arrive at their own solution to a conflict, one which they are willing to live wit in the future.

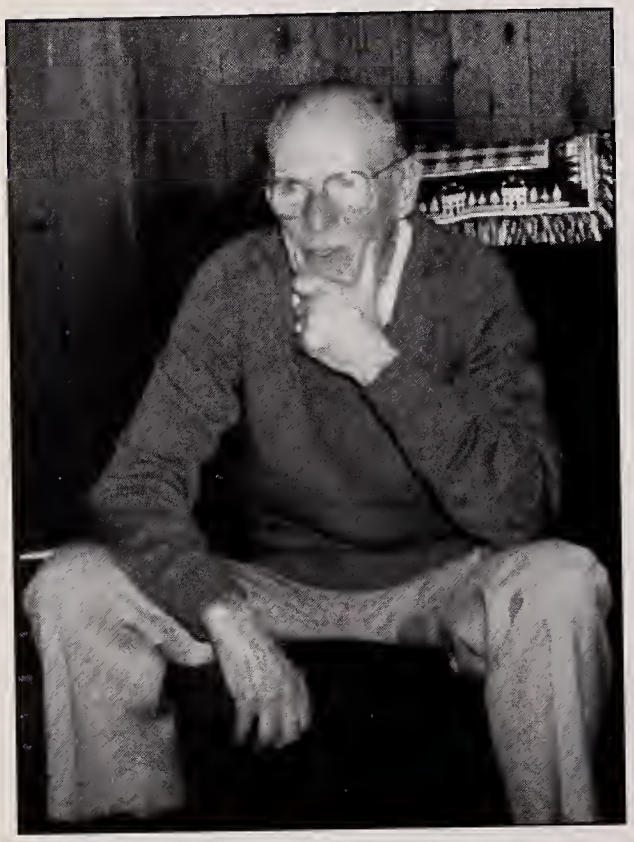
CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1994

My sincerest congratulations to the Class of 1994. You have completed an important phase of your life. Hopefully, all the experience you have had will give you the knowledge and wisdom to be productive citizens in an ever changing world.

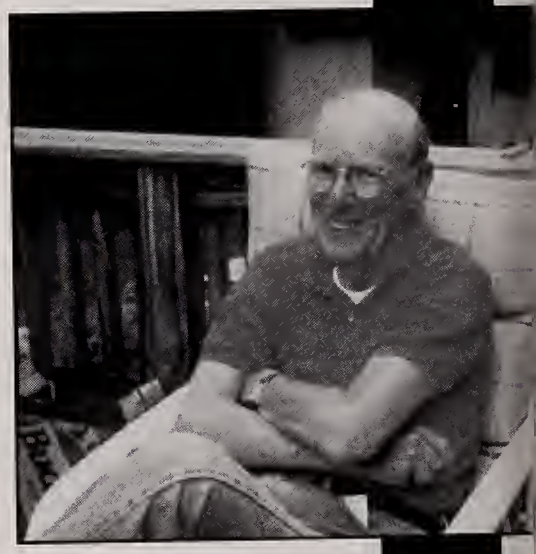
Edward J. Woods
Assistant Principal

Dedicated to the memory of Mr. Roger Breakey



Roger Breakey came to Wilmington High School on September 5, 1957. His career began as a science teacher in biology and chemistry. At one time he entertained thoughts of becoming a doctor, but the many students who knew him were thankful that he decided on teaching instead.

During his thirty-six years of service to the town of Wilmington, Mr. Breakey was also a drivers' education instructor and Dean of Students before becoming a guidance counselor. The numerous students and staff who were touched by Mr. Breakey's presence in their lives will never forget his caring and kindness.



A great guy! A father to all, a grandfather to many, and a man of great compassion.

G. DiSarcina

His gentle manner, warm smile, and refreshing sense of humor are the things I remember about Mr. Breakey. He was a mentor and a friend.

Annette Curley

Mr. Breakey will always be remembered for his warmth, compassion, and great wisdom. I shall remember him as a truly good man who cared and made a difference.

Florence Athanasia

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1990, the Class of '94 entered the High School. After we settled in, we elected Wayne Griggs President, Angela Caira Vice-President, James Gleason Treasurer, and Kate Nepveu Secretary, with Sue Zraket as our advisor. We watched the Boys Soccer team win the Division 3 North Sectional Championship and the Field Hockey team make it to the States. On the eve of midyears, the Gulf War broke out, which touched us all during its brief span. Closer to home, we walked out to protest the budget cuts, although looking back, it didn't appear to have much effect.

Sophomore year we had a new advisor, Paul Fleming, and a new President, Angela Caira; James Gleason was Vice-President, Erica Solas was Treasurer, and Kate Nepveu was Secretary. It was a good year for our sports teams, as several made it to States, and the Football team won the annual Thanksgiving game. We had our Halfway Dance, better known as the Sophomore Semi, at the Sons of Italy. During the year we watched LA burn and talked about the Thomas-Hill hearings, Magic's retirement, and the end of the Soviet Union.

Junior year our officers were Shannon Jepson, President; Rose Cudia, Vice-President; Laura DeMarco, Treasurer; and Kate Nepveu, Secretary. It was a mixed year for sports, to say the least: during the fall Wilmington was famous for the h-word, but by the spring we had two state championships, from the mile relay team and the Softball team. The country elected a new president, the World Trade center was bombed, and the Midwest flooded during the year. Most of us participated in the first Church Street Challenge, in which we finished third. (However, we did beat the freshmen). Our junior prom was held on May 14th at Hillview Country Club, and Rick Morin and Janee Woods were King and Queen.

Senior year our advisor was Richard DeRosa, and our officers were Angela Caira, President; Marc Callendrello, Vice-President; James Gleason, Treasurer; and Fay Karapatsas, Secretary. We were stunned by Reggie Lewis' death and Michael Jordan's retirement, while jokes about the Bobbits and Tonya and Nancy were inescapable. At Homecoming, we elected Marc Callendrello and Angela Caira King and Queen. Field Hockey, Boys and Girls Soccer, and Girls Basketball all made it to the State Tournament, while the Softball team won the MVC championship. The '94 Day Party at the Sons of Italy was a great success, while the second annual Church Street Challenge was not, for our class at least. Mr. Joyce's AP English class performed "The Play's the Thing" for two nights this year. On May 27th, we ended our four years at WHS by signing out; that night we held our Senior Prom at the Westford Regency.

During our time here, the Class of '94 has accumulated many memories, both good and bad. We leave knowing that our memories will last far longer than any lesson learned in class.

Kate Nepveu

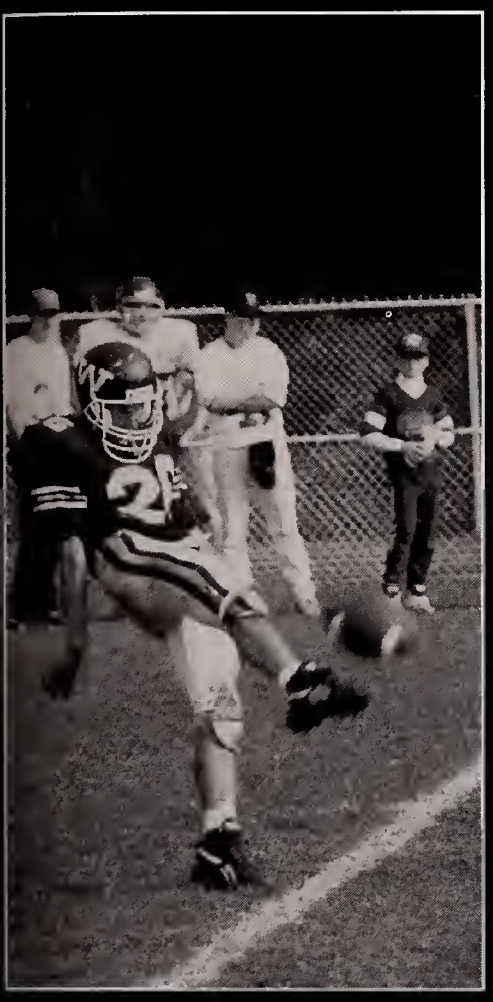
WILDCAT FOOTBALL

Co-Captains Dave Fleming and Eric Robbins



The Wildcat football team faced many changes in the 93-94 season. Along with a new coaching staff came a new attitude. The coaching staff was led by Gerry Sullivan along with Bob Scaccia, Bob Aylward, John Schena, Chuck Carucci, and Leo Cambell. The team itself was led by captains Dave Fleming and Eric Robbins, and included seniors Josh Levesque, Keith Pearlstein, Steve Walsh, Bryon Burke, Brian Tildsley, Buddy Pratt, Greg Johnson, Sean Ballou, Dave Maglio, and Brent Carbone. The team played hard against many of the MVC powerhouses while beating Lawrence and stomping Dracut. The team would like to thank the fans for their support, thank you both. Also thanks to the great coaching staff and our families.

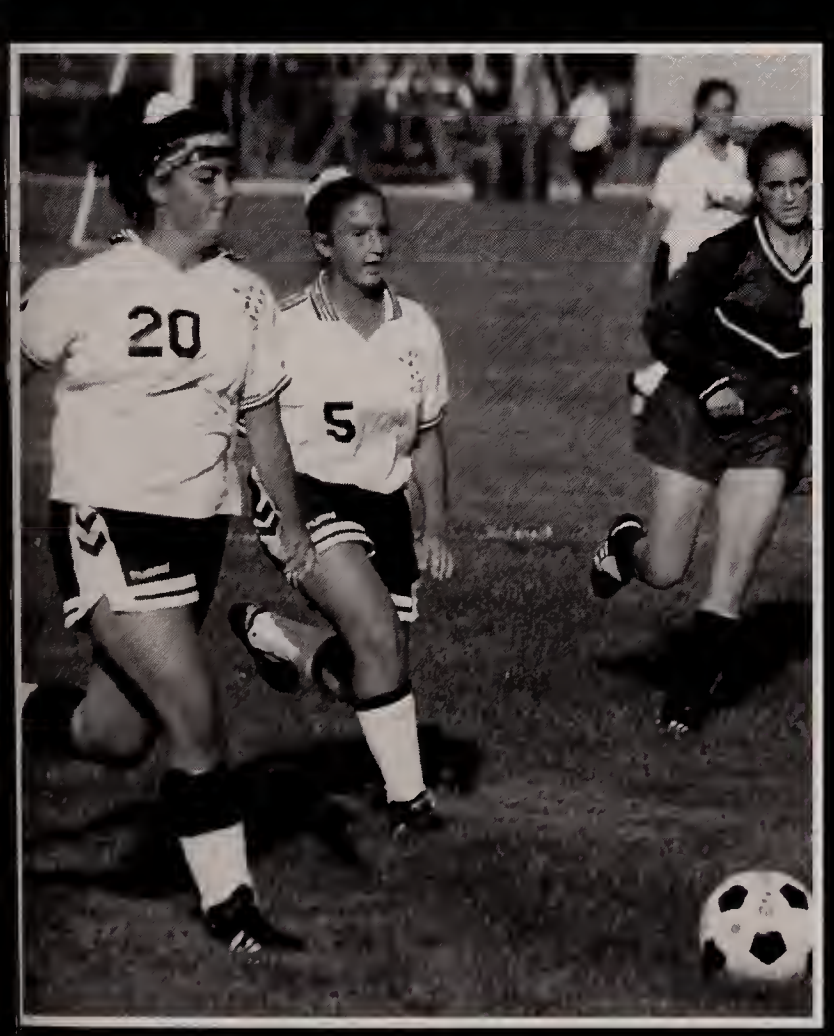
SOCCER



The Wilmington Girls Varsity Soccer team had a very strong 93-94 season. The team captains were Jill Murphy, Adrienne Fay, and Jennifer Murray. The other seniors on the team were Lynette Sbano and Laura DeMarco. The team made it to the state tournament but lost to Masconomet in the second round. The All-Star Players were Adrienne Fay (All Conference), Jill Murphy, Jennifer Murray, Nancy Pote, Mary Armata, Nicole Dussault, Jamie Forgett, and Jacqui Hayden. Good luck to next year's team. The 1993 Boys Cross Country Team showed great improvement this year with a 3-6-1 record. The team's standouts were captain Brendan Rogers, junior Justin Yentile, and seniors Bryan McFeeters and Zonk. Other Varsity runners included juniors Pat Rufo and Marc DiJulia. The team also had its share of problems as sophomore Greg Young missed the entire season with an ankle injury. Brendan Rogers went down in the middle of the season with appendicitis. The team from Dracut also mapped out a new course for Wilmington during the race. Losing only two varsity members, the team is looking at another strong season next year.

It was a rebuilding year for the WHS Field Hockey team, but the Lady Wildcats still had a great season led by Urquie, co-captains Stacey Gillis and Lisa DiPerri, and the mascot — Toonces. For more than twenty years the Field Hockey team has participated in the state tournament with the 93/94 season being no exception. The strong, winning tradition will be kept alive by hard work, dedication, love, and "The Circle." The All-Conference players this year were Stacey Gillis and Leanne Harris and All-Star Keri Anderson. Good Luck next year playing the best sport there ever was!

The 93/94 Basketball Cheerleading Season was great. Due to outstanding participation and wonderful attitudes we were able to accomplish many tasks. The team was led by captains Amy Moniz, Susan Errico, and Colleen Fogg. We gained two freshmen Amy Lyons and Sheila Walsh, three juniors Michele Fortes, Allyson Murray, and Katie Moran who joined last year's team of Jen Ausiello, Alyson Ward, Colleen Stokes, Keli Mehegan and Jessica Stygles. We would like to thank Keli Mehegan for choreographing our dance, and our loving basketball players. You gave it your best and we were with you all the way. Thanks for a great season.

The 1993-1994 Wildcat Wrestling team had a very successful year. Although their one-fifteen dual meet record showed otherwise, the young Wildcats had a few excellent individual performances.

Senior Captain Brian Tildsley had an excellent year at one hundred and twenty-five lbs. His dual meet record was an impressive fifteen wins and only one defeat. Overall, Brian had thirty wins and five defeats. He placed third in the Sons of Italy, second in the Methuen-Haverhill tourney championship, second in the Division Three North Sectionals, and fifth in the first ever Division Three State tournament, held at W.H.S. Wrestling Varsity for the Cats since freshman year, Brian has compiled a career record of eighty-eight: twenty-six.

Keith Pearlstein had a great senior year at one hundred and thirty lbs. He helped lead his team with an overall record of twenty-four:eleven. Keith placed fourth in the Sons of Italy, fourth in the Haverhill, third in the Methuen, and fourth in the Division Three North Sectionals. Keith plans to wrestle in college.

Josh Levsque's senior year can be summed up in one word, "determination." After an excellent start in his season, Josh ran into an injury that held him back for a while. He came back strong to place third in the Division Three North Sectionals third. He also placed fourth in the Sons of Italy earlier this season.

Brian Ashdown stepped it up a few notches at the end of the year to finish his season on a high note. His third place finish in the Sectionals was a surprise to all, but well deserved.

Cliff Esher was a four year varsity wrestler for Wilmington. He was known throughout the league as one of the toughest to put on his back. He wrestled very toughly in a difficult weight class.

Greg Johnson had a good senior year with an overall record of fourteen:eleven. He also placed fourth in the Sons of Italy and second in the Methuen tournament.

A few youngsters also stepped up for the Cats this year. S. Kerrigan, M. O'Toole, B. Tate, M. Shelly, and B. Harrison all wrestled hard and are expected to do great things in the future. Led by their new coaches Tom Alyward and Keith Sullivan, all the Wildcats wrestled with a toughness that was recognized throughout the league.

The seniors and the coaches would like to thank Mr. Nee for all his help in scheduling, team support, and coaching the past five years.

BOYS WINTER TRACK

Co-Captains B. Rogers and J. Martinie

The Wildcats were led by captains Brendan Rogers and Joe Martiniello. The four seniors were captain Brendan Rogers, Steve Walsh, Wayne Griggs, and Joel Santorelli. The seniors completed their winter track season this year with some great performances. Rogers ran the mile and did well. Walsh threw the shot put and qualified for the states. Griggs did the high jump, ran the fifty-meter hurdles, and ran the relay. Santorelli did the high jump and fifty-meter hurdles. Other state qualifiers were Seung Won Kim, Joe Martiniello, Tim Devlin, and Greg Young. Young went on to All States and placed eleventh overall. During the season the boys won two meets. Assisting in the victories were Justin Yentile, Pat Rufo, John Williams, Eric Shaffer, and the entire team. The seniors helped prepare for a promising team next year.

Back Row L-R: Coach F. Kelley, C. Kacamburas, T. Devlin, S. Kim, T. Peterson, G. Young, M. Fuller, M. DiJulia, G. Wittemore, H. Grise, N. Censullo, S. Farrow, Coach R. Cripps. Center Row L-R: S. Marchillo, J. Rufo, M. Vogel, P. Burns, J. Williams, M. Sweet, K. McClaren, J. Bamberg, T. Murphy. Front Row L-R: J. Yentile, S. Walsh, B. Rogers, J. Martiniello, W. Griggs, J. Santorelli, P. Rufo.

GIRLS WINTER TRACK

Captain — J. Murphy

With only thirteen girls, the team worked hard all season to compete against much larger teams. Running for the Wildcats in the state meet were senior Captain Jill Murphy in the hurdles and sophomore Amanda Zaya in the fifty-yard dash. The individual efforts were outstanding, including those by Lynette Silva in the shot put and Cheri Lawrence in the high jump and sprints. Through all the individual sacrifices the girls remained supportive and encouraging to each other. Remember — "Run fast, Run hard, Run like WHS Girls' Winter Track!"

Back Row L-R: Coach: F. Kelley, J. Gosse, E. Boisvert, M. Kanter, J. Roberts, D. Langone, A. Zaya, Coach: R. Cripps Front Row L-R: K. Casella, S. Gillis, J. Murphy, C. Lawrence, L. Silva, R. Keefe

Vaidya, D. Beson, M. Gaudet, N. Catanzano, M. Toce, 5th Row L-R: K. Sullivan, A. DuLong, J. Carroll, P. Decors, K. Tarr, C. Peters

Well George, Fern, and the gang, we wrap up another season! Although we only had one win, we certainly had a lot of underclassmen to help us out! Good efforts were made by everyone on the team. Don't forget the enemies, Dracut and Missy (or would you rather). Good luck next year and keep showing it off!

Boys Outdoor Track

The boys' outdoor track team had a strong season behind many people who qualified for the state meet. Senior Captain Joel Santorelli qualified and tied the school record in the pole vault. The individual qualifiers were senior Wayne Griggs in the long jump, 330 hurdles, and high hurdles; sophomore Greg Young in the 440, 220, and 880; junior Joe Martinello in the 220 and 440; Junior Seung Won Kim in the 100 and sophomore Tim Peterson in the pole vault. The team also sent three relay teams to the state meet. The 4x440 team of Kim, Martinello, Young and Griggs qualified, while breaking a track record at the state relays. The other two teams to qualify were the 4x100 team of Whittemore, Dunham, LaCorcia and Jansen; and the 4x880 team of Senior Captain Brendan Rogers, Junior Captain Pat Rufo, Yentile and Peterson.

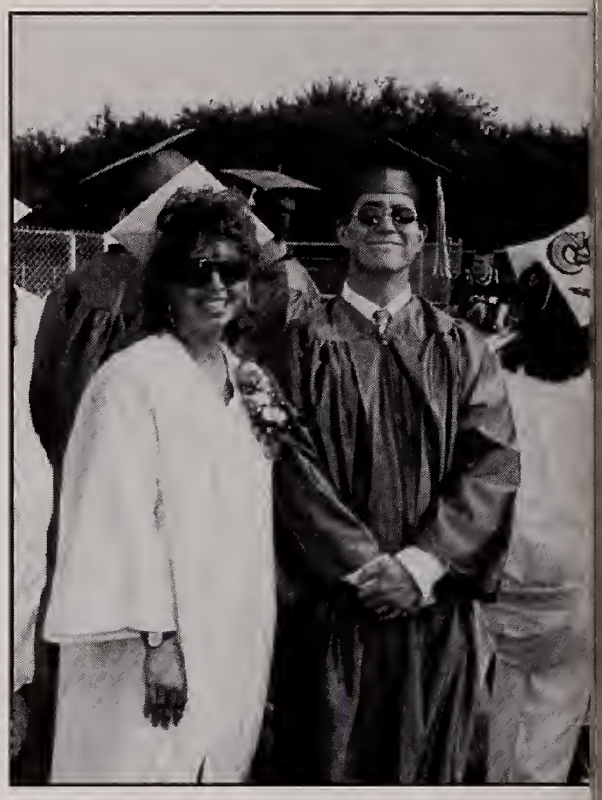
GRADUATION



The Class of 1994 received their diplomas at five o'clock on the hot and steamy evening of June thirteenth. The crowd rose to greet the graduates led by Marshalls Cliff Esher and Bryan Maleszyk. The invocation was given by Mr. Frank Kelley, retiring after thirty-seven years as a teacher and coach. Mrs. Lesley Basmajian, Teacher of the Year, was selected by the class to deliver the faculty message. Student speakers were Honor Essayist Stephen Hall, Salutatorian Laura DeMarco, and Valedictorian Kate Nepveu.

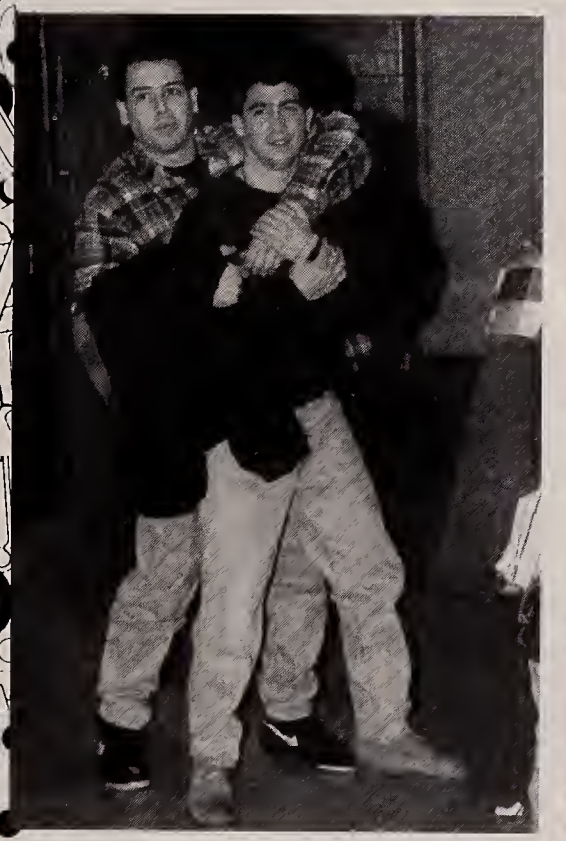
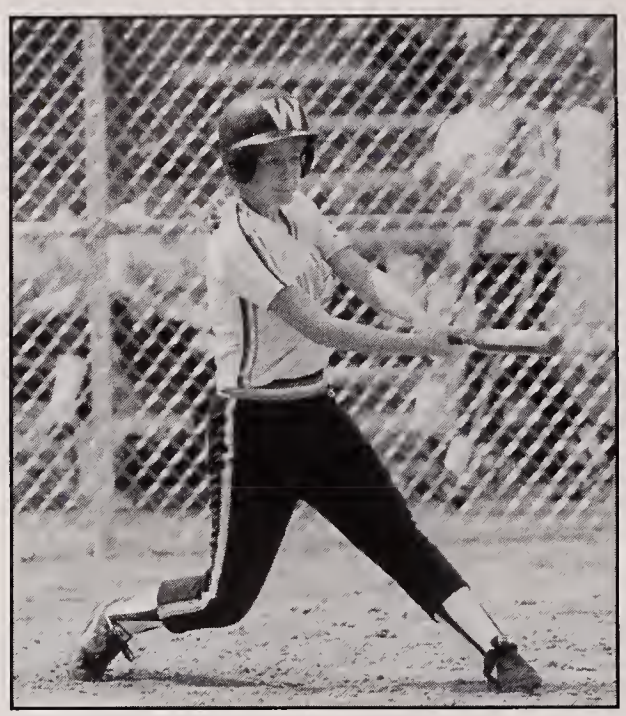
Teacher of the Year at work!

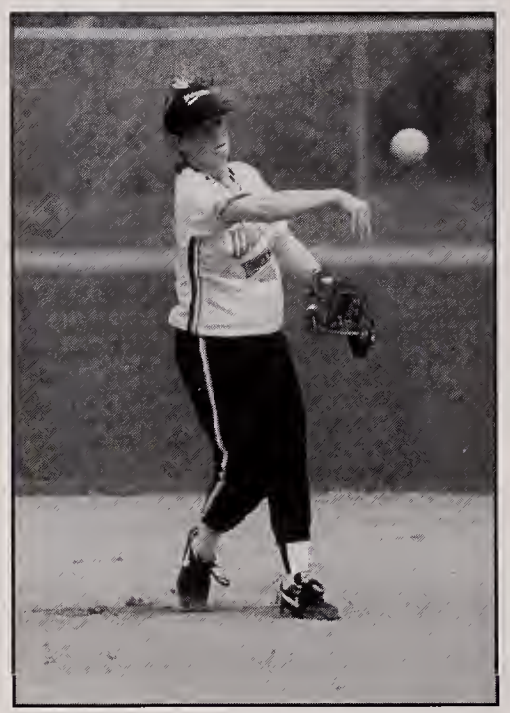
It needs a little, je ne sais quoi!

Words of encouragement from the Coach.



REPEAT!!





Good hitting and the perfect throw proved to be the winning combination for the Division II State Championship crown. The Wilmington Wildcats brought the title home for the second year in a row with a victory over the Mounties of Mt. Greylock. A furious last inning rally mounted by the opponent fell just short as Leanne Harris threw the tying run out at the plate.

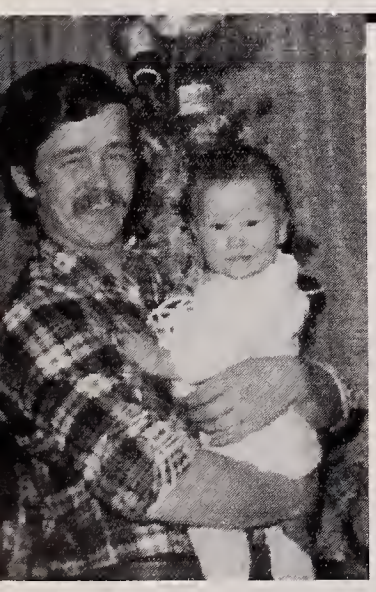
"A job well done"
From: Pranav,
Parool, Mom and
Dad
With best wishes
for the future.

Erin: Congratulations on a job well done but most of all for being a great kid. We are all very proud of your accomplishments and hope you accomplish everything in life you want to in the future.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Howie



To Pam
You are so very special to me
More than you could ever know
I only wish your father could be here to see how his little girl has grown
He was so proud of his Iggy Wiggy
If he could only see the special woman you are now.
My goal is to protect you
To offer you a hand
I want to help you build your dreams
And to help those dreams come true
You are loved for the little girl you were
And the wonderful daughter you will always be
I will always be here for you
No matter where you'll be.

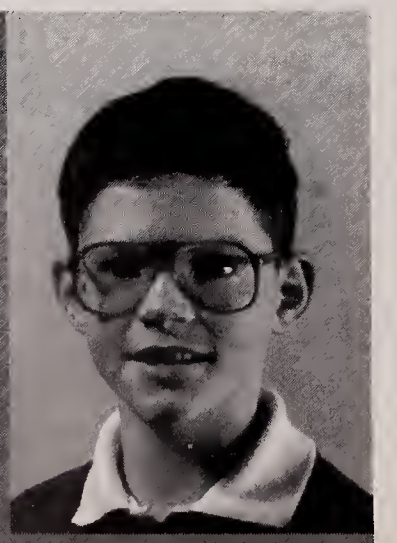
Love
Always
Mom

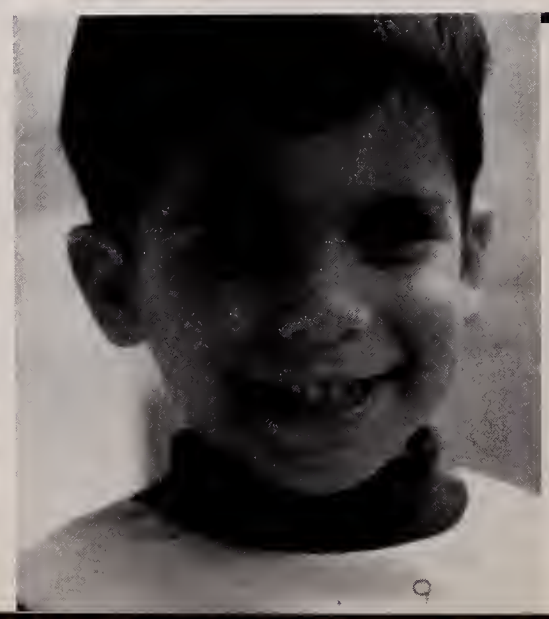
Chris
How proud you have made us. Love, Truth, Respect and Caring for others are only a few of your finer qualities. May your smile continue as you head off to College to continue your education and may your future bring success and happiness and no more broken bones.

Love
Mom and Dad

Joey,
We are very proud of you and the fact that you are beginning your adult life in a career of service to others. Your presence in this world will help to make it a better place if you continue to spread kindness to others. You are certainly a joy to your parents.

Mom and Dad





To our Star,
Congratulations!!
May the future be bright and promising.
We love you, Sean.

SHANNON LYNN JEPSON
My daughter, my friend. Eighteen wonderful years ago in Germany I waited 9 months to see and feel my gorgeous little girl's fingers, toes, face, and hair. Then the giggles, walking and running came. I can understand now how you got your speed for jogging and soccer. As the years went on with your growing so fast, we'd talk Mom to Daughter talk and we would grow with unconditional love and a bond forever. Now what to do? So many decisions for you to make, scary but also exciting that you can decide just what YOU want to do. If you make a small mistake, just remember all the great things you've done these past eighteen years and hold your head high. Be open for challenge, creativity, compassion, confidence, fear, faith but most of all know I will always be here for you unconditionally and will always be praying you are safe. I will miss you each day of your life. With all my love,
MOM .....
